ORDER

Before the Court is the joint motion of Plaintiff Martin Meissner and Defendant’s temporary receiver, Eric. L. Johnson, to stay this case for a limited period of time (Doc. 42). The Western District of Missouri appointed Eric L. Johnson as temporary receiver for Defendant BF Labs Inc. in the case captioned Federal Trade Commission v. BF Labs Inc., et al., with case number 4:14-cv-00815-BCW (“Receivership Case”). A Stipulated Interim Order entered in the Receivership Case stayed all other proceedings against Defendant. The parties to this case seek a stay for a period of time dependent on certain events in the Receivership Case. For good cause shown, the Court grants the joint motion.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. The Joint Motion to Stay is granted.
2. This action is stayed until the earliest of the following:
  - a. The Western District of Missouri dismisses the Receivership Case;
  - b. The Western District of Missouri denies the FTC’s request for injunctive relief in the Receivership Case;
  - c. The Western District of Missouri amends the Stipulated Interim Order (Doc. 54 in the Receivership Case) to eliminate the stay imposed on other proceedings; or,
  - d. December 22, 2014.

3. Within seven days of the occurrence of any of the events outlined in 2(a)-(d), the parties shall file a status report with the Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
